Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope you and your families are keeping safe and well and making the most of all the amazing free books out there. As I am discovering more and more, reading really does give us somewhere to go when we have to stay where we are. I have just finished reading Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte for the first time and was completely transported.

So I thought I would set you and your children a challenge. I would like you to help them recreate a book cover of one of their favourite books, using themselves and other props or family members. I am sure you will have lots of fun doing this and you can share your photos on our Home School Happiness Gallery for everyone to see, email: glaptonphotos@outlook.com

Here are a couple of examples to inspire you!

I can't wait to see your fantastic recreations! All children who enter will receive a #ThankOurChildren Certificate.

Kind regards,

Helen Kay
